

Lombardos' bond set at $100,000 each

BY D.C. HARVILL

The 16-year-old son of Frank Lombardo said his mother and sister told him about his father's death before the body was discovered, according to testimony by Bay Police Chief Ray Murphy.

Testifying at a bond hearing for Fran and Mari Lombardo Tuesday, Murphy also said witnesses allege Frank Lombardo did not take a medical examination for a $100,000 insurance policy taken out in his name approximately one year prior to his death.

Fran Lombardo collected $200,000 from the insurance company after her husband's death. The policy paid double its face value because the insured died under a given set of circumstances.

The prosecution had requested that the Lombardos be held without bond until their court date, but Circuit Court Judge James Thomas set their bond at $100,000 each.

The judge stipulated that they are not to leave the county, they can have no contact with any potential witnesses in the case and they must report to the sheriff's office every Friday morning until their trial.

According to Murphy, tests performed by the Mississippi Crime Lab indicate that the signature on the insurance application do not match those on Frank Lombardo's driver's license and other papers.

Frank Lombardo's charred body was discovered on a couch in his rented home after firefighters extinguished a Christmas evening fire that gutted his McDonald Lane residence.

County approves Moody as new veterans officer

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors has approved the selection of Paul Moody as the county's new veteran's service officer.

Moody succeeds Sandra Garber, who resigned recently after several years' service. After voting Wednesday to hire Moody, the board agreed to recognize Garber's service with a resolution of appreciation.

Moody, a former Kiln resident who recently moved to Diamondhead, was selected from a pool of 25 applicants and six finalists screened by 21 representatives of the county's seven veterans' organizations, said Jay Marsh, an American Legion Post 77 representative who presented the group's decision to the board.

The new service officer spent 24 years in the U.S. Navy. Among his assignments have been two Gulf Coast locations, John C. Stennis Space Center and the U.S. Naval Construction Battalion base in Gulfport. He retired about four years ago and has lived in Hancock County since that time.

Moody told the board that he has handled some of the same type of paperwork and dealt with some of the same agencies he will be contacting in his new job when he was assigned to assist widows and dependent children during his naval career.

In other business, the supervisors: —Agreed to pay for street lights currently being paid for various community associations —Heard a report from Bill Mitchell of Brown and Mitchell Engineering and Shea Pendleton of Louisiana Geological Survey regarding tests searching for sand sources for beach replenishment;

—Authorized Tax Collector and Assessor Edward Murtigh to begin collecting property taxes on Dec. 1; and —Approved closing the courthouse for the Thanksgiving holidays as scheduled by the governor's office.

The board meets again at 9 a.m. Nov. 22 in the upstairs boardroom of the Hancock County Courthouse.

Wilkerson transfers to fire department

BY DENA BISNETTE

A Waveland police officer rumored to be fired has accepted a job with Waveland Fire Department.

Mayor John Longo Jr. said that he is prohibited from making statements regarding the details of personnel matters under the Privacy Act.

However, he met with John Wilkerson Jr. Friday after consulting the board of aldermen in executive session prior to a regular board meeting.

Longo said at that time he had placed Wilkerson on "permanent suspension without pay" from the police department but had offered him a lateral move to the fire department with the knowledge and approval of Fire Chief David Garcia.

The mayor said Wilkerson, who has been employed by the police department for about 10 years, accepted the offer Tuesday morning.

Wilkerson said he was pleased with the transfer, as it will fit in better with his education plans. He attends University of Southern Mississippi at Hattiesburg.

Wilkerson has worked as a firefighter before, having served with Bay St. Louis and Waveland. He continued to work with Waveland Fire Department as an auxiliary for several years after becoming a police officer.

South Central Bell offers unique plan for Gulf Coast area

BY DENA BISNETTE

South Central Bell has come up with a calling plan designed to save money for people now calling long distance along the Gulf Coast.

It will no longer be necessary to dial "1" before the number they want with the new Area Calling Plan, according to District Manager Pat Santucci. The plan, a customer option, becomes available Dec. 1 and will allow its subscribers to make the formerly long distance calls at cheaper, local rates.

Santucci said a similar plan had been tested in the Meridian area for about a year and is now being offered for about 40 exchanges throughout the state.

The usual Area Calling Plan uses what are called "calling bands", which are basically circles denoting areas served by a home wire center, an area from one to 10 miles outside that center, and areas 11 to 16 miles, 17 to 55 miles and more than 56 miles from the center itself.

Santucci explained in a conference at South Central Bell Tuesday that the circular plan was not feasible on the Gulf Coast because there are 16 wire centers, some of which include Bay St. Louis, Pearlinton, NASA, Bayou LaTerre, Gulfport/Long Beach, Lyman, d'Iberville, Ocean Springs, Vancleave, Gautier, Pascagoula, Moss Point and Hurley.

A similar but unique plan which will be effective from state line to state line has been worked out for the coast, Santucci explained.

Gun accident injures deputy

BY DENA BISNETTE

A Hancock County deputy is in stable condition at Hancock Medical Center following surgery for an injury sustained in a gun accident.

According to Hancock County Sheriff Ronald Peterson, Deputy Terry Roberson accidentally shot himself Tuesday night shortly after returning to his home from an evening shift that ended at 10 p.m.

He underwent surgery Tuesday morning.

Peterson said officers who talked to Roberson at the scene reported that Roberson was seated on a bed in his residence and was attempting to apply electrical tape to a gun holster in an effort to improve the way it fit his weapon.

During the process, the .45 caliber handgun discharged and the bullet hit Roberson in the groin area.

Peterson said he was told that the bullet went through Roberson's body.

Roberson went to his patrol car and used the radio to call the sheriff's department dispatcher. Four deputies, including Don Watson, Bill Pepperman, Kenny Hurt and Albert Biehl, went to his assistance, then summoned Mobile Medic Ambulance Service to take him to the hospital.

Investigator Glen Strong is in charge of the investigation of the accident.

Peterson said Roberson has worked as a full-time deputy for about three years and is a recent graduate of the Mississippi Law Enforcement Academy at Long Beach.

across a region as large as the Mississippi coast," she added.

Area Calling Plan participants will pay a basic line charge plus additional charges for each local call, which Santucci said gives the caller more control over his bill.

The service will be available to both residential and commercial callers. In addition, there will be a cap on the charges to the two nearest calling bands, meaning that residential customers will pay no more than $15 and business customers no more than $25 no matter how many calls they make in these areas.

She said the new prices, even outside the capped area, are about 2/3 less than long distance rates and the charge for hunting service being assessed to multi-line customers now will be reduced by about 20 percent.

Complete information about the plan will be mailed to homes and businesses in early December, but Santucci said customers will be test the plan without a service provided they cancel within 120 days if they do not want it.

There are some circumstances under which customers would not see a savings from the Area Calling Plan and, if they choose to keep their flat-rate or measured service, there will be no expansion of their local calling area.

South Central Bell is able to offer the new plan due to new technology, but is taking a loss

A thought for meditation from our pastor Father Justin Furman, ST.

"Gratitude implies appreciation. It insists upon realizations of how and whence the favors have come and recognition that some external response should be made to show the interior sentiments that we have of thankfulness."

We do appreciate these favors; that is why we are trying to be thankful. We realize whence they came and how much they stand for God's love towards us. Now the important thing is, what is to be the response? Thanksgiving.

Parish CYO members meet each Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the parish hall.

Choir practice is scheduled for 6 p.m. each Thursday at St. Ann Church.

CCD classes for grade school children will be 10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 18 in the parish hall. There will be no classes Saturday after Thanksgiving.

Taylor announces funding approval

BY DENA BISNETTE

Funding to continue the operations of the Mississippi Army Ammunition Plant at John C. Stennis Space Center has been approved.

According to Fifth District Congressman Gene Taylor, the conference committee report on House Bill 3072, which authorizes defense appropriations for fiscal year 1990, includes the $90 million needed to continue the ammo plant operations and to protect the 1,700 jobs there, Taylor stated.

The $90 million was included at the house's insistence with help of Appropriations Committee Chairman Jamie Whitten of Mississippi, he added.

Taylor said $20 million was originally budgeted to close it down.

Ammo plant lays off 50

BY D.C. HARVILL
The Mississippi Army Ammunition Plant at Stennis Space Center will begin laying off workers in phases with a total of approximately 50 employees expected to be out of work, a plant spokesman said Wednesday.

The lay off has nothing to do with announcements last year about closure of the plant.

"The lay off is just a normal business adjustment," said R.

Bruce Campbell, assistant to the president of Mason Chamberlain, the private contractor that operates the plant.

According to Campbell, the company had "inched" its number of employees upward to about 1740 for special projects, but would have to adjust that number for current needs.

Campbell said he could not be specific about when the lay offs will become effective, only that they would begin "in the short term."

The lay offs will be plant-wide and employees with seniority will have the opportunity to take the jobs of employees who have not been employed as long, Campbell said.

The Army announced a year ago that the plant would be phased out of operation beginning in 1990, with total shut-down by 1992.

According to Campbell, a joint House and Senate appropriations committee released a proposal for a $90 million appropriations bill that would fund the plant through 1990.

Mason Chamberlain continues to seek contracts with U.S. allies for the 155mm projectiles produced at the plant.

"I am very optimistic about the future of the plant," Campbell said.

Stones thrill mixed crowd

BY D.C. HARVILL
The generation gap was bridged in the Superdome Monday night.

When the Rolling Stones took the stage in the New Orleans stop on their Steel Wheels concert tour, the legendary rock group from England was greeted by a sell out crowd of 55,000 that represented at least two generations and every segment of the social spectrum.

From the concert's opening song, Start Me Up, amid the near hair-singing intensity of flash pots to the encore's last note, both middle-aged mothers and teen-aged daughters were on their feet clapping and dancing.

The concert attracted sixties holdouts with graying beards and pony-tails and business-suited yuppies—who travelled to the concert from points spread across the South East.

The band's time-honored numbers dominated the show, including It's Only Rock and Roll, Angie and Ruby Tuesday, but newer additions to their repertoire also were well received by the crowd.

"QUOTABLE QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

The Hawks of Hancock North Central will journey to Ellisville to face the South Jones Braves Friday night in their quest for state title in playoffs.

Last Friday the Hawks captured the District VIII 4A title by defeating Laurel, 24-7.

South Jones is this year's District V and Division V champ, so this should be a very good game in Ellisville.

Hawks supporters have even chartered a bus for the trip to Ellisville, so a large crowd of Hancock supporters is expected to be in the stands.

Irvin Favre's Hawks have been playing very good football this season and we wish him and his team good luck in Ellisville.

A large crowd was on hand Monday afternoon when our new District Attorney Cono Caranna took his oath of office.

It was good to hear the many words of praise offered to out-going District Attorney Joe Meadows who was appointed by Governor Ray Mabus on an interim basis for nine months.

There are many police departments in the three counties the district attorney serves, and it was good to see representatives at the ceremonies from all departments.

I know Pamela Metzler, Hancock County circuit clerk, was honored to have issued the oath of office to DA Caranna.

Also our Circuit Court judges, numerous attorneys and many well-wishers were on hand.

We wish DA Caranna and his staff the best of luck in the months to come.

Today across this nation the Great American Smokeout is celebrated.

This is the day of the year set aside to encourage smokers to give up the habit.

I realize there are those out there who will never give up smoking, but on the other hand, there are also those who would like to stop smoking.

I know from my own experience, it is hard to stop smoking, but it isn't impossible. I did it 'cold turkey' as the saying goes, over 20 years ago.

There are a lot of organizations that would like to see all smokers quit, and this is something they will be trying to do for many years to come, and there will still be some who will smoke.

I wish everyone luck who gives up smoking during the Great American Smokeout, and who knows, there may be some who will never touch another cigarette.

THE PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

From the Mississippi
Economic Council

Mississippi business and government leaders need to be prepared to move quickly, if Congress and the Federal Aviation Administration approve the "wayport" concept as a means of easing the nation's airport congestion problems.

Wayports are transport airports in rural areas that would draw air traffic away from major hubs and serve as transfer points for cargo and passengers.

To their credit, the legislators last session approved a bill that formed the Mississippi Wayport Authority Advisory Council. In addition to creating a 16-member advisory council, the bill included provisions for the immediate purchase of land and allowed for a tax exemption as incentives to locate in Mississippi. The bill are all good steps.

However, during their first meeting, members of the authority seemed to be waiting for the FAA to establish guidelines before acting. That is certainly a position which makes sense, because the economic stakes are similar to those of the atom-smashing Supercollider.

An Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs' report estimates a wayport would have a $2.2 billion economic impact on that state, with a $78 billion cumulative impact through the year 2030. In addition, the study estimates a wayport would add 39,000 workers to the state's employment rolls and $80 million in continuing tax revenues.

But also like the Supercollider, the decision of where to build these wayports—if indeed the concept is approved—is likely to have a political tint.

Considering that, we in Mississippi should not wait for final guidelines but be involved in the formation of those guidelines.

Hawks deserving of playoff berth

Dear Editor,

Congratulations to the members of the Hancock North Central football team and to Coaches Favre, Gaudin, Perniciaro and Shaw on the very successful season the squad has had so far this year.

Regardless of which team we supported during the regular season, all of Hancock County should back the Hawks on their drive for the 4A State Championship. With each victory in post-season play, Hancock North Central is letting people across Mississippi know that they can compete with and beat anybody in the state.

What is impressive about this ballclub is the way that each group—the offense, defense, and special teams—seem to play together with a special determination and pride when they are on the field.

We should all remember that HNC is Hancock County's only representative in playoff competition, and that this team is made up of athletes born, raised, and coached here in Hancock County.

It is unfortunate that players from our area do not get the media coverage and recognition that teams from Gulfport-Biloxi, Hattiesburg, or Jackson receive. That will always be the case, but a team must let its actions on the playing field speak for itself.

Good luck, Hawks, against South Jones Friday in your bid for the South State Championship.

Sincerely,

PRCDA supports NASA in ASRM testing issue

Dear Editor:

As executive director of the Pearl River County Development Association, I publicly support NASA's plans to test the Advanced Solid Rocket Motor (ASRM) scheduled to begin in 1992 at the John C. Stennis Space Center.

I recently attended meetings in Picaune and Hancock County which featured the leading opponents of the ASRM project, and left these meetings more convinced than ever that NASA's research can and should be trusted.

I, along with the majority who attended the meeting (who were not current or former NASA employees), have enough faith in NASA's scientific and technical capabilities to believe that it is not going to jeopardize the lives of 5,500 Stennis employees, nor 60 children who will occupy a day care center there, nor the health of area residents and the local environment.

I feel that NASA has been wrongly accused of misleading

Law abiding citizens have rights, too

To the Editor:

I would like to respond to the statements made in an article in the Sea Coast Echo on Nov. 9 by Police Chief Ray Murphy.

He stated that "the Mayor Edward A. Eddie Favre" wants me to harass those people at the corner of Sycamore Street, but I am not going to do it. These people have rights, too.

Well, Police Chief Murphy, the law abiding people who live, own property and have to travel in that area have rights, too.

We thank the chief for his generosity. But we do not need the congregating of a bunch of proven dope abusers, burglars, shoplifters, muggers and the constant fighting and shootings.

There is nothing we can do to help these people, but we have to think of our children who are subjected to all that is going on. They (the teenage children) seem to think if the police does not stop it, it must be okay.

There is no harassment in asking people to get off the public about this issue. The propaganda, and the scare tactics by those opposing the program cannot erase or destroy the credibility and trust NASA has earned over the past decades.

Anyone who approaches this ASRM issue reasonably should know that NASA would not take a chance on ruining such a highly respected reputation.

It is time for those who are open minded, logically and reasonable to publicly express their trust in NASA.

The Stennis Space Center has done more for the residents of South Mississippi, economically and environmentally, than to throw it all away for this project, NASA has been a very good neighbor to us.

Let's keep that in mind before we make any irrational mistakes that may hurt us in the long run.

Sincerely,
Sherman J. Gaspard

street, stopping cars, or stopping awful language and gambling. The people who own property in the area do not want this on their property.

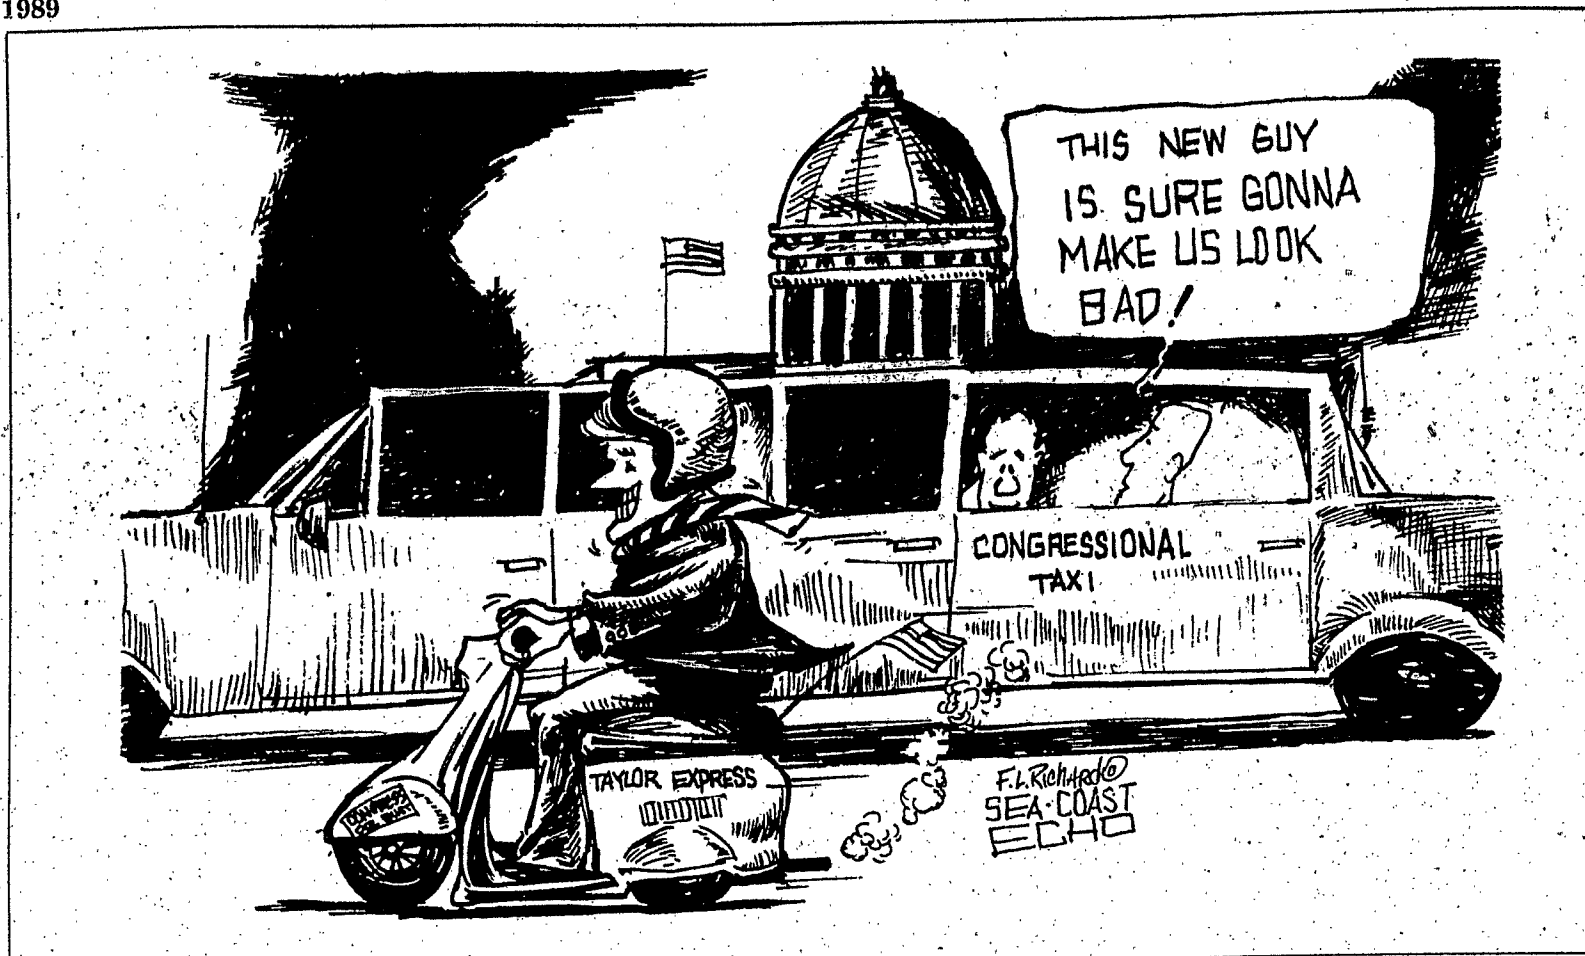

What happened to the curfew law for teens? Teens are hanging out in front of bars all night long and nothing is being done about it. If the bar owners were warned that they could lose their licenses for having them in and around their establishments, it would alleviate some of the problems.

The police are needed to make spot checks, get out of their cars and see what is happening. They need to assure everyone concerned that they are there to help, not to hinder.

We can restore confidence in our police department with a little more help from the citizens (the police cannot do it all alone).

We can make this town a town to be proud of and safer and better for all the people.

A concerned citizen,

Voter finds elections too costly for state

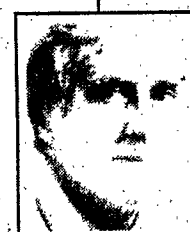

To the Editor:

It is now November 1989. Can you believe Nov. 21, we Mississippians will make our tenth trip to the polls to vote since April 1989?

Mississippi is one of the poorest states. Do you realize what we as taxpayers are putting out for this latest charade?

Election coverage by WLOX TV was sparse. I hope they didn't go over budget with the coverage they afforded the District 46 Senate race. This was considered by most of the district a very important race.

A lot of harmony between Cochran and Lott in judgeship appointment

The deal that senior U.S. Sen. Thad Cochran made earlier this year with his ambitious junior colleague, Trent Lott, to jointly handle federal job patronage survived its first major test last week.

There was nothing but harmony in the joint announcement by Cochran and Lott recommending former state Sen. Charles Pickering of Laurel to replace ousted U.S. District Judge Walter L. Nixon Jr. in the southern Mississippi district.

Pickering, who has labored in the trenches and as a leader in building the Mississippi Republican party for 25 years, significantly is the first state GOP activist to be rewarded with a federal judgeship.

Some party hardliners have been critical that Cochran's previous judgeship appointments have been mostly Democrats or persons not known for having been active in the Republican Party.

Selection of the very conservative 52-year-old Pickering also should be very satisfying to the party's right-wing which has largely been Lott's chief base of support within the state party organization.

Pickering had managed to stay somewhere in the middle ground during the factional warfare which broke out within the state party in 1980 when Lott made an abortive effort to wrest control of the party hierarchy away from Cochran.

Because of his reputation as a good compromiser, Pickering had been chosen state GOP chairman to heal wounds within the party after the bitter split between backers of Gerald Ford and Ronald Reagan at the 1976 Republican National Convention in Kansas City.

In 1979, Pickering made a strong bid for state Attorney General, and was favored to defeat Bill Allain to become the first Republican to win election to a statewide office.

However, a late campaign blunder by Pickering, wrongly branding Allain a former member of the segregationist white Citizens Council and then having to admit the error, was believed to have cost Pickering the close election.

Pickering's own record as a state senator in the 1970's may come into question from civil rights forces during Senate confirmation hearings on his nomination to the federal bench.

Former state Sen. Henry Kirksey of Jackson has launched an attack on Pickering for having voted for the 1977 state law which sealed the files of the old State Sovereignty Commission, the one-time segregation strategy agency.

Cochran and Lott have already concurred on their next major piece of senatorial patronage coming up in February, reappointment of George Phillips to the U.S. attorneyship for the Southern District, the spot Phillips has held the past eight years under Cochran's recommendation.

There had been some rumblings that Lott might try to have Phillips replaced with someone of his own choice, but Cochran was able to get Lott to sign off on keeping Phillips in the job.

With the appointment of Pickering, it will mean that Cochran, in his nine years in the U.S. Senate, remarkably will have named all but two of the 10 federal district or appeals court judges from Mississippi.

Only Charles Clark, chief judge of the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals and District Judge L. T. Senter Jr. of the Northern Mississippi district were on the bench before Cochran took over judicial patronage in 1981.

What is so remarkable about the fact that Cochran has been able to pick eight judges for the federal bench is that is almost twice as many judges as the late Sen. James O. Eastland and retired Sen. John C. Stennis were able to name in the previous 40 years.

Within the next month or so, still another Cochran appointee—Jackson attorney Rhesa Barksdale—is expected to be confirmed in a new slot on the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals that has been awarded to Mississippi. Barksdale had first been submitted by Cochran five years ago, but the appointment was put aside in the Reagan

Tuesday night fire destroys house

BY DENA BISNETTE
A weekend home on the Waveland beachfront was totally destroyed Tuesday night, possibly as a result of a lightning strike.

Waveland Fire Chief David Garcia said three neighbors told him they smelled smoke shortly after 6 p.m., when they reported seeing lightning strike in the vicinity of the home at 926 South Beach Boulevard, but could not find the source.

The house, owned by John J. Bergeron, was unoccupied when the fire was discovered and reported at 8:51 p.m., Garcia said.

The first pumper truck arrived four minutes later, but the flames had already burst through the roof, the chief added.

A second pumper truck and a salvage and overhaul unit, manned by a total of 14 firefighters, were dispatched to the scene. It took about 90 minutes to extinguish the blaze.

The last unit left the scene at 1 a.m.

Garcia and Hancock County Fire Marshal Jay Marsh are still investigating the cause of the fire, but Garcia said lightning is being considered as a possibility because the house next door lost all its electrical appliances to a lightning strike.

Waveland Police sponsors bad check symposium

The Waveland Police Department will conduct a symposium for local businesses at 1 p.m. Monday on bad and worthless checks.

The program is intended to educate businesses about how to spot bad checks and what action can be taken should they receive bad checks.

The symposium, to be held at the Waveland Police station, will cover the difference between civil and criminal checks, misdemeanor and felony checks; the procedure for filing affidavits on bad checks and identification that should be required to avoid bad checks.

A representative of the district attorney's office will explain that office's check programs.

Guest speakers will include

County Prosecutor John Gehin, City Prosecutor J.P. Compretta, Mary Ann Sibly, with the D.A.'s worthless check program; and City Court Clerk Paula Fayard.

All businesses are welcome.

Administration.

There is a twist of irony that in 1989 both Cochran and Lott voted for the removal of Walter Nixon from the federal bench under articles of impeachment stemming from Nixon's conviction for lying to a grand jury. Back in 1981, Lott, then a House member, tried to block Cochran's appointment of (now Appeals Court judge) Grady Jolly to the Appeals Court. The two came up with a compromise candidate: District Judge Walter Nixon.

Nixon, however, declined to take the promotion. Three years later, Nixon was indicted.

THIS LAND IS YOUR LAND

By Joe Pilet

Admit it. We are all victims of noise pollution. Name the unhealthy things that are being discharged into our atmosphere, and trace the sources. Chances are you will end up applauding the noise makers and start being thankful for the racket!

Noise should be divided into three or more classes:

- Class I - Pleasant
- Class II - Necessary
- Class III - Annoying & Unnecessary

To trace the reasons for Class I these pleasant noises include the early morning sounds. Beginning about five o'clock in the morning you'll hear ka-lump. Your paper is being delivered.

The ka-lump - ka-lump sounds very like the croak of an ambitious bull frog as the plastic encased paper hits the ground.

The low whistle is that of a neighbor calling his dog home and the accompanying sound is that of an owl giving his final hoot-who-who before signing off from night duty.

Now car doors are banging shut - open and shut sounding like some percussion instrument - very like a drum. The "bread winners" are preparing to journey forth to their various places of employment.

The clap-a-clap that you hear is the rhythm of joggers hopefully bouncing off fat. Early birds and little winged creatures begin to twitter, flutter and add a few high notes our ears are not trained to recognize.

Maybe they are trying to compete with the rumble and grumble and whine of the school bus which is loaded with sleepy-eyed students. Shortly after the bus drones on comes the private transportation sector. They warm up the engine oil - turn on the radio to favorite programs.

This is followed by a brief intermission during which time you may hear the rumble of distant drums. Band practice time. The other attention getter is alert whistles as the mile long freight train approaches crossings.

Now is the time for all dogooders and sales people to arrive ringing your door bell and the skate board acrobats are saying "Hi" to the mail carrier. Also the school bus is returning loaded with kids. Peppy, noisy, happy kids. They will soon be on their way to bat balls, practice piano, ride bikes or turn on their T.V.'s pretty high.

Yes, we do admit that we have the air filled with sound pollution which means that people of all ages are leading meaningful and useful lives.

We welcome Class I noise pollution with all of its rumbling, clattering and catawauling. This type of pollution is made by useful people doing their fair share.

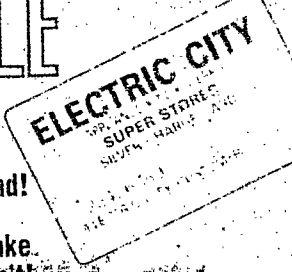

Also think of our nights. Most of them are so quiet you could hear a mosquito belch.

GIFT CERTIFICATES AVAILABLE
FOR OUR 14 POINT SERVICE. A PERFECT CHRISTMAS GIFT.

During the holidays, food can be a favorite traditional gift for family, friends and colleagues. Festively wrapped homemade treats offer a personal touch that everyone on the gift list will enjoy.

Such holiday specialties add even more to celebrations when they don't come loaded with fat and calories. Rich, delicious recipes can still follow the nutritional balance that most Americans are trying to meet. And, when presented in creative wrappings, these food gifts are received with excitement.

For example, sweet cranberry relishes can be made without all of sugar's calories by using Equal® sweetener. Equal is known to enhance the flavor of some fruits while keeping calories low. Also, relishes can be offered in pretty glasses instead of the standard jars, so hosts can place them right on the holiday dinner table.

Some fruit-flavored cakes can keep their rich textures, and eliminate the traditionally high fat content. One option is to use full-bodied fruit toppings that add nutritional value and look beautiful.

Add fun to cake gifts by doing more than wrapping them in plastic. Try delivering them on serving platters in attractive hat boxes.

Holiday dessert balls are often rejected by the diet conscious. To ease these calorie concerns, cooks can add some fruit filling, which can help lower the amount of fat and sugar per serving. It's also important to serve dessert balls appropriately. When guests do enjoy such morsels, they might overeat if the balls are presented together in a dish, because each ball loses its value as a treat by itself. But served in individual wrappers, they each become gems of indulgence. Pretty tins or glasses make elegant containers for holiday displays.

Traditional recipes with a few new twists can help answer one of the toughest holiday questions—"What can I give that everyone will enjoy?" These recipes demonstrate how traditional foods don't have to be sinful. And the microwave directions keep cooking quick and easy.

Some time-saving tips for the coming holiday season

The holiday season is a hectic but fun-filled time, with entertaining, gift buying, decorating and tree trimming. With everything there is to do, there is always that one last minute gift, that finishing touch for party snacks, or that clever and unique decorating idea that makes the holidays bright.

To save valuable time—time better spent with family and friends—the plant experts from Duraco products, Inc., manufacturer of Garden Scene® brand plastic planterware, offer these ten time-saving tips for your holiday season.

1. To protect carpeting under your Christmas tree stand, a large, deep dish, clear vinyl saucer is perfect. It fits neatly inside the legs of the stand, and will catch any water that may accidentally spill when watering the tree.

2. For an unusual way to ice and serve wine or champagne, a Grecian urn provides an elegant touch. Fill the planter with ice, and put in the wine or champagne. Voila!

3. That unusual gift is easy. A Christmas cactus planted in an attractive plant bowl is a great gift, and hints at a touch of the old Southwest, so popular this year. Also, plant bowls can be used to serve popcorn or candy at holiday gatherings.

4. For entertaining, a large, low profile planter can be used for chips and dip, or for icing beer and pop. Also, low profile planters, available in sizes up to 22" in diameter, are ideal for planting a live Christmas tree because it requires a minimum of soil.

5. For a splash of color in your decorating, amaryllis bulbs planted in a full depth, high gloss planter are spectacular, and will last throughout the holidays.

6. As a buffet centerpiece, a window box planter can be filled with bright, colorful Christmas ornaments, or planted with a variety of flowering bulbs—crocus, hyacinth and narcissus. And, the bulbs can be transplanted outdoors.

7. Christmas candy in an antique black kettle is a warm and inviting way to say "welcome" to your guests. And metalized kettles, available in copper and brass finishes, can be used to serve that special holiday wine.

8. For the person who has everything, consider giving him or her a planter, potting soil and seeds. It's a wonderful and fun gift, and starts that person on a life-long hobby: Container gardening.

9. If Christmas tree shopping is not your favorite activity, consider purchasing a large Norfolk pine, and planting it in a full depth planter that matches your decorating scheme. You not only can decorate it as a Christmas tree, it will remain with you all year as a beautiful and decorative plant.

10. And finally, after the holidays, don't forget your feathered friends. Put your tree in a sheltered area of your backyard, and fill the branches with sweet balls. It will attract numerous birds, including cardinals, and brighten your winter months.

As the Garden Scene plant experts suggest, using decorative plastic planterware for your holiday entertaining and decorating is not only a real time-saver, it also will give you a start on your container gardening for next spring.

Shopping strategies for a stress-free holiday

Each New Year's Day, many of us resolve to begin next year's Christmas shopping in July. But by the time December rolls around, resolutions are long forgotten and crowded stores, traffic jams and jangled nerves become the order of the day.

Although shopping early is a commendable idea, it's not the only way to survive the holiday crunch. Here are several suggestions to keep you cool when the shopping season heats up.

• Write a gift list and set your budget right after Thanksgiving. Jot down friends' interests and hobbies or memorable gifts received in the past so it will be easy to plan clever and welcome gifts for everyone.

• Let your fingers do the footwork. Mail order catalogs give the option of at-home shopping for everything from jewelry and furs to smoked turkey, chocolate and rare tulip bulbs.

Many companies offer toll-free telephone numbers to ensure prompt service. Overnight and two-day delivery of items also may be available for an additional charge.

• Selecting pre-wrapped gifts or those whose packaging is wrapping enough is a great time saver. For example, Tiffany's robin's egg blue box with white satin ribbon is enough to make pulses race.

And, Godiva Chocolatier's

famous gold Balotin dressed in holiday ribbon or the classic gold cord sends a message of unparalleled quality and luxury without any further embellishment.

• Personal shopping services are frequently overlooked, yet they can be a real bonus for one-stop shopping. All across the country, fine department and specialty stores are offering these services for their customers at no charge.

Just give them your list and budget, and the professional shoppers will find and arrange delivery of the gifts in time for the holidays. Independent personal shoppers will perform similar services at a variety of stores for a fee, which is generally based on an hourly rate.

• If the idea of lugging bulky packages from store to store is depressing, take heart. Big things can come in small packages. Memberships to museums or health clubs, subscriptions to concert, opera or lecture series and even airline tickets for a second honeymoon or to see loved ones are all marvelous gift ideas.

• Shopping excursions don't have to be limited to department stores and crowded malls. Hardware stores carry many clever and useful household items, including the latest electronic kitchen gadgets and appliances.

Or browse through antique shops to discover unusual and distinctive treasures like crystal ink wells and old English tureens for the collectors on your list. Even neighborhood tag sales offer out-of-the-ordinary gifts for those whose tastes you know well.

• Gift certificates are always reliable, particularly for less intimate friends and acquaintances. Fortunately, there are many options from which to choose: a makeover day at a nearby spa, a color analysis for the wardrobe, compact discs form a leading audio store, tennis lessons or flowers every month and from a fabulous florist—the possibilities are endless.

• Simplifying your present wrapping is a sure way to avoid last-minute headaches. The best way is to theme each season. For example, buy only red paper this year, and add variety with different color ribbons and unique cards.

Or develop a signature wrapping style and use it from year to year. Also, be sure to stock up on colored tissue, paper and pretty gift bags to help make those gifts presentable in record time.

• If your idea of purgatory is standing in line at the post office, on December 15, salvation is at hand. Delivery services such as United Parcel Service and Federal Express provide next-day pickup at home or office and reliable delivery.

For local deliveries, take another tack. Hire a friend's teenage son or daughter to do the job. You'll enjoy the free time, and he or she will be grateful for the extra money.

The holidays are meant to be a time for family and friends to share good times together, but so often the anxiety and fatigue brought on by holiday shopping can interfere. By practicing these reliable tips, you can eliminate a lot of stress and truly enjoy the spirit of giving.

Senior citizens can benefit from electronics product

The future looks bright for America's senior citizens as a variety of electronic products available this holiday season help make their lives a little bit easier.

"People who are 55 and older are members of the fastest growing segment of America's population," says Sally Browne, executive director for consumer affairs for the Electronic Industries Association's Consumer Electronics Group.

"Senior citizens' lives are becoming increasingly more enjoyable to live with increased sophistication of today's consumer electronic products."

These products, any of which would make an excellent gift for senior citizens this holiday season, include consumer electronics products with timers and lighting systems that can be programmed to come on and go off at certain times.

A variety of security devices, including one that locks all doors and entrances to your house, are also available, as is a device that brings down the heat to a preprogrammed temperature setting.

A pair of headphones is a terrific gift for senior citizens because a person's hearing capacity may diminish as he or she gets older. Headphones allow a senior citizen to adjust the volume of a program to a level that is most comfortable.

Electronic products such as cordless phones are helpful in a variety of circumstances. By keeping a cordless phone at his or her side, a senior citizen can call for help in case of an emergency without having to go to a stationary phone.

Programmable VCRs are popular with everybody, and senior citizens are no exception. Favorite programs can be recorded for viewing at a later time.

A camcorder would make a wonderful gift for any senior citizen this year. Camcorders can be used to tape "video letters" to send to families that live far away.

They can also be used to make a visual record of possessions for insurance purposes (particularly for jewelry). This provides senior citizens with important peace of mind.

Senior citizens who love to read, but have poor eyesight, would enjoy receiving books on tape as gifts this holiday season. And, senior citizens who have gone back to school can record lectures on portable cassette recorders for playback at a later date.

There is probably an electronic product available that will make this holiday season a memorable one for the senior citizen in your family.

GE Plastics tops United Way goal

Employees of GE Plastics, Sunland Services Inc. (a Division of Barnard & Burk), and Gulf Coast Security, have exceeded their 1989 United Way Goal. Donations totaled $5,118 with a goal of $4,500. This was a 44 percent increase over 1988.

According to campaign chairman Robert Williston, many first-time gifts were a result of individuals being allowed to mark their contributions to support specific local agencies.

An additional donation will be presented to the local campaign in the amount of $2,500 from the General Electric Foundation. This year, total gifts from General Electric employees and the foundation will reach almost $22 million, placing them among the top United Way supporters nationwide.

THE SEA COAST ECHO—THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1989-1B

SECTION B

Time Out

By Dena Bisnette

Soccer, basketball, cross-country track and football are all going on this week. There's a little sports action for everybody.

This is the time of year to watch some of the area's young athletes make their transitions from one sport to another. Some of the young football players who also participate in other sports are good examples.

It interests me to see the different kinds of talent each particular athlete has. I have seldom met a youngster good at only one kind of sport, but usually by the time they are in high school, they have picked a favorite.

My philosophy has always been that sports are sort of like a buffet lunch—sample a little of everything the first time around and if you find something you particularly like, you can always get a big helping on your second trip to the table.

Cycles Plus Bicycle Club will meet at Landon Station off Highway 49 and Landon Road in Gulfport at 9 a.m. The 35-mile route is being referred to as the "Montana Rib Ride" because the group is planning to eat lunch at Montana's Restaurant after their cycling trip.

Some running results from this past weekend are in. In the Marine Corps Toys for Tots 5K run at Gulfport, top local finishers included Mark Koch of Bay St. Louis, first in the 25-29 men's division; and Herbert Smith of Pass Christian, second in the 45-49 division.

Smith also took a third in the Ocean Springs Rotary Club 10K Road Race. His time for that event was 45:29. He had a somewhat faster time in the Gulf Oaks Community Hospital and Gulf Oaks Hospital and Clinic-sponsored run, when his time was 43:36 and he took first in his division.

Another Pass Christian resident, Richard Brown, came in second in the Gulf Oaks run's 200-209 weight division, completing the race in 45:50.

Another run is coming up Saturday. This one, the Biloxi Mayor's Cup, is a 5K with a one-mile following it and begins at 9 a.m. in front of Biloxi City Hall (Lameuse Street).

Gulf Coast Running Club is hosting as usual and will begin accepting race-day registration at 8 a.m. Children 12 and under who want to compete in the one-mile can register for $5.

Information is available from Sherry Bell at 435-6281 or Lindo Sullivan at 832-6071.

Ron Kozak of Bay St. Louis, who was trying to get to the 1989 Red Man All-American Bass Championship, made it as far as the regional classic in Demopolis, Ala., competing against the top 24 fishermen from five regions.

Kozak had to compete in six qualifying tournaments to get to the regionals. It was his second regional tournament and the second time he was unable to make the top ten and get into the national tournament.

Here's hoping the fish will keep biting and that the old saying, "Third time's the charm," is true. We'll be looking for you next year, Ron.

Here's a competition for anybody who hunts White Tail deer on the coast: the third annual White Tail Buck Contest that opens Saturday.

Entry fee is $5 and must be paid by 6 p.m. Friday. For information, call 826-5571.

The contest continues through Jan. 17 and is subject to all Mississippi Game and Fish laws. All entries must be 1989-90 season kills with hides and horns attached.

They can be checked in at contest headquarters, Red Creek Taxidermy on Mississippi 57 in North Vancleave, from noon until 6 p.m. daily.

Several prizes are to be awarded, including $750 cash, a Browning 270 rifle and a free mount. An in-state kill and out-of-state kill will be selected out of the single bucks with the largest point systems. In addition, there will be a category for total by single entries among the in-state kills.

Brooks dominates district cross country contest

St. Stanislaus junior Brian Brooks ran away from the field Saturday as the Rock-A-Chaws competed in their first-ever cross country season.

Brooks took the lead from the beginning and didn't look back, running the 5,000-meter course in 16:48, over a minute ahead of his closest competitor.

As a team, the "Running Rocks" placed a respectable fourth behind the established squads from Biloxi, Ocean Springs and Resurrection.

Finishing behind Brooks for the Rocks were Scott Marechal (19th, 20:05), Michael Hargett (17th, 21:35), Bryan Carter (34th, 23:17), Frank Kerbl (35th, 23:56), and Wade Weidman (36th, 24:07).

The Running Rocks finish their initial season next week in Jackson at the state meet. The race is scheduled to start at 12:20 Saturday afternoon.

SSC wins opener

St. Stanislaus travelled to Slidell Tuesday, picking up a 63-45 basketball victory over Pope John Paul.

Chris Perrone topped the Rock-A-Chaw scoring with 19 points and 11 rebounds, followed by Shannon Garrett with 12 points and seven assists.

The Rocks, with a 32-24 half-time lead in their season opener, also won the B-team game. Trent Terrell contributed 10 points to the 40-14 victory.

Stanislaus hosts Bay High tonight at 8:30 p.m. in the Hancock County Tournament.

Mini-tournaments kick off Bay Area Youth Soccer

Bay Area Youth Soccer has begun the fall season with a series of mini-tournaments for the Under-8, Under-10 and Under-12 age groups. Fortunately the recent rainy weather did not interfere with the playing of the games with most of the rain coming after the tournaments.

Under-12
In Under-12, Coach Jerry Peoples' Gladiator team and Coach Eddie Farve's Bruisers team participated in the Pearl Fall Tournament on Nov. 11 and 12. Regular fall season play begins this weekend, Nov. 18 for the Under-12 age group.

Under-10

In Under-10 play, the regular season began Nov. 4 with Coach Ronnie Vanney's Cyclones defeating Coach Richard Flowers' Falcons by a score of 5-0.

Goals were scored by Chris Genin, Jimmy Saucier, Dusty Carver and Ronnie Vanney. An outstanding defensive effort by the entire team resulted in a win.

Coach Flowers' Falcons played well, but could not consolidate their attack on the Cyclones' goal. In their Nov. 11 game, the Cyclones defeated coach Jessie Schwartz's S & H Grocery team by a score of 4-0.

Coach Christine Ross' Stingers defeated S & H Grocery by 5-1 in their Nov. 4 game and defeated Coach James Arce's Warriors by a score of 1-0 in a very close game Nov. 11. The single goal of the game was achieved on a corner kick.

The fast paced action of Under-10 games will continue this weekend with games scheduled at 9 a.m. and 10:15 a.m. on the Coleman Avenue field.

Under-8
In Under-8 play, Coach Virginia Kenny's SuperMASH team defeated Coach Jeff Debenport's team by a score of 2-1 on

Hawks continuing play-offs as they face South Jones

BY DENA BISNETTE

Hancock North Central Hawks get a shot at revenge as they travel to Ellisville to face the South Jones Braves Friday, facing the same team that knocked the Hawks out of last year's play-offs.

The major difference between 1989 and 1988, according to Hawk Head Coach Irvin Favre, is that Hancock went to Ellisville as runner-ups last year and this year, the Hawks are going in as Division VIII 4-A champions.

South Jones is this year's District V and Division V champ in the 4-A class, with a 9-2 record. In last week's first round while the Hawks were defeating Laurel 24-7, South Jones was beating McComb 17-10.

"With a 9-2 record, this is a very good team but it's not the same team we faced last year. The team we played last year beat us by two touchdowns," said Favre.

However, South Jones does have an experienced quarterback for the return engagement and has built an offensive strategy around him.

"Both of us run a wing-T offense, but they use two tight ends and we use one tight end," Favre explained. "We both use a lot of the same offensive plays."

"Those two tight ends can be a problem for us because that makes your defense balance up," the coach added, referring to the ineffectiveness of stacking all the defensive strength on one side of the line when faced with that kind of offensive strategy.

"It's their quarterback, Jason Simpson, (six-foot-two and 180 pounds and a senior) who makes their offense click, whether it's running or throwing. We will definitely have to

"They have a quick defense, using a four or a five-man front, and they run to the football real quick, which is what we call pursuit," he said.

"They're probably overall quicker than us and we'll have to stay with our blocks. We can't just hit them a good lick and go on because they'll get to the ball."

The reason for South Jones' ability to pursue is evident to contain him and not let him get outside, because if he does he's a danger to us."

Favre added that Simpson was credited with saving last week's game, which McComb was winning until the fourth quarter.

Defensively, South Jones is not as large across the line as Laurel was and may actually be slightly smaller than Hancock. However, Favre looks at the Braves as a rather unusual team.

people familiar with football's numbering scheme, which has specific sets of numbers for specific positions.

Their quickness is due to having a lot of backs who play on the defensive line. Their two inside men on the four-man are both fullbacks. On the 50, four out of the front five are back numbers.

"I look at it to be a good football game and I feel confident we can win this if our fans turn out, and our kids are mentally ready."

"It's going to boil down to who wants it most."

One handicap for Hancock has been the interruption of Tuesday's practice session, considered the week's hardest work day, by a severe thunderstorm.

After only 30 minutes' work, the weather forced the Hawks indoors where they found that practice could not continue due to a power failure. Favre, however, feels his team can overcome the loss of that day.

A chartered bus for fans is leaving Hancock North Central at 5 p.m. Friday, for those who wish to follow in their own vehicles. To get to the South Jones stadium, take the second Ellisville exit off Interstate 59.

Raiders move into win column

The Coast Episcopal Raiders finally broke their 27-game losing streak with a win over Marrero Christian Academy on Tuesday night 53-50 overtime. The top scorer of the game for the Raiders was freshman Tyrone Jones with 15 points.

The game was very close with the lead flip-flopping constantly. The first quarter ended with Marrero ahead 9-8, and at the half Coast led 23-21.

In the third quarter Marrero finished on top 34-33, and the regular play ended tied 50-50.

In overtime the Raiders scored on a two-pointer and a free throw.

Coach Jack Hutchison said this was his 38th win as a basketball coach, but it was definitely the best.

"We had several chances to quit, especially late in the game, but we kept working hard defensively and something good finally happened to us," said Hutchison.

Outstanding players for the Raiders were seniors Jamie White with 11 points and six rebounds; Billy Guice with eight points; sophomore Chris Painter, seven points; and junior Paul Bernadas, four points.

Hutchison said the Raider boys are slowly developing confidence and are now realizing they can be competitive against just about anyone in the league.

The next Raider home game is Thursday, Nov. 16 in a Round Robin Tournament against Harvest Academy of Hammond, La. at 6:16 p.m. The Raiders play again Friday at 8:15 p.m.

The Lady Raiders play two games Friday, at 4 p.m. and again at 7 p.m. All games will be played at the CEHS gym on Espy Avenue.

CES 'B' team tops Marrero Christian

The Coast Episcopal High School Raider B team now holds a 2-0 record after their win Tuesday night over Marrero Christian Academy, 28-23.

High scorer for the game was Paul Bernadas with 11 points. Other outstanding players were Scott Covode, 10 points; Nathan Guice, five points; and Regan Kane, two points.

The B team will play in a Thanksgiving tournament in Bogalusa, La. on Tuesday, Nov. 21.

Coast Episcopal seventh and eighth grader boys and girls will play Gulfview in Waveland on Monday, Nov. 20 at 6 p.m.

Nov. 4.

On the same afternoon, Coach Gus McKay's Renegades team defeated Coach Donnie Shiel's Bobcats.

On the weekend of Nov. 11, Coach Bernard Tusa's Fireballs defeated the Bobcats in afternoon competition.

The Renegades defeated Coach Dehenport's team to remain undefeated. Four goals were scored by Stephen Peterman and single goals were scored by Daniel Guy and Dylan Murphy for the Renegades.

Outstanding defense by Gus McKay, Doug DeGeorge, Chad Deville, Blake Garland and Leah Peluso helped to insure the victory.

Coach Timmy Kingston's Chargers team defeated the SuperMASH team by a score of 4-0 for the final game of the day.

Coach Kingston congratulated the whole team for a fine effort. Great defensive effort was shown by Taylor LaFontaine, Mylon Labat, Kyle Freeman, Chris Blanchard and Steve Cook. The four Chargers goals were scored by Trevor Kingston.

A new point system is being implemented this year by the BAYS program. This point system was selected by MYSA (the state organization) and USSF (the national soccer organization) for tournament play this year.

Six points are awarded for a win; three points for a tie; zero points for a loss; plus one point for each goal up to a maximum of three and one point for each shutout win. A maximum of 10 points is available per game.

The following tie-breaking system, in order of priority, will be used.

A. Winner of head-to-head competition

B. Last total goals allowed

C. Highest goal difference

D. Highest total goals

E. Penalty kicks (FIFA rules)

For tie-breakers, C and D, only the first three goals for in each game will be considered; therefore, there is no benefit to be gained from running up the score on an opponent.

State boxing championship to be decided at Coliseum

Championship boxing returns to Mississippi on Dec. 2 at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum.

Biloxi's heavyweight sensation Jerry Goff (6 wins, 0 losses) goes toe to toe with Jackson's Willie "Dynamite" Albritton (17 wins, 3 losses).

Goff (6'4", 215 lbs.), an All-American and former national champion as an amateur, is touted by boxing experts as one of the finest young heavyweights in the country. He puts his future on the line when he collides with hard-hitting veteran Willie Albritton. Albritton (6'0", 218 lbs.), possesses an impressive record and has the punching power to match. Among his accomplishments is the Southern States heavyweight title.

This scheduled 10 rounder will leave one man clutching the Barq's Mississippi State Championship belt and the other contemplating his future.

The undercard features exciting Gulfport middleweight Sylvester White (10-7) against tough Ricky Clemens (5-4).

A special feature matches adults with children 14 and under $7.

With the exception of ring-side and reserved seating, Barq's Root Beer has agreed to reduce the price of admission $2 for ticket purchasers redeeming one empty can of Barq's at the time of ticket purchase (one can per ticket redemption limit).

This reduces general admission tickets to $10 for adults and children 14 and under tickets to $5.

Tickets are now available at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum and all ticket master outlets.

four-time junior olympic champ Chad Broussard (Rayne, La.) against rugged veteran Earl Davis (7-3) Greenville.

Broussard is undefeated in five fights and looks to be an up and coming star.

In a matchup of unbeaten lightweightweights Adolpho Washington (6-0), of New Orleans, takes on Randy Williams (3-0) of Greenville.

Ticket prices are $20 ringside and $15 for reserved seating. General admission is $12 for

Ray sets DSU record

The Delta State University women's swimming and diving team made it three straight with a 71-36 win over Quachita Baptist Saturday with senior Beth Cronin setting a school record with her 5:50.89 time in the 500-yard free. Coach Ronnie Mayers' men lost 67-46 to even their record at 1-1, but Bay St. Louis native Lonnie Ray established a DSU record with a 2:05.52 winning time in the 200 butterfly.

Bud Light Daredevils to perform

The Bud Light Daredevils, the most unique slam dunk act in the country, will perform during halftime at the University of Southern Mississippi basketball game against Tennessee Tech on Monday, Nov. 27 at M. M. Roberts Stadium.

Tip-off time is 7 p.m. The Bud Light Daredevils' popularity has taken them to more than 200 colleges and universities in 45 states, every National Basketball Association arena and 13 foreign countries. The team includes Mike Gilliam, Andy Johnson, Gary Hedrick, Lance Robinson and Brian Smith.

The act consists of an eight-minute slam dunk and acrobatic halftime show highlighted by the "Flip Dunk" and the "Twist & Shout," to daring feats of agility.

The "Flip Dunk" features a team member, wearing a hockey mask for protection, executing a forward somersault high into the air and slamming the ball through the hoop on his way down.

The "Twist & Shout" involves two team members approaching the mini-tramps simultaneously. They each pass a basketball off the backboard and catch them while doing front somersaults with one-half twists. The duo then passes to the remaining two team members for a climactic double slam dunk.

Other dunk acts include the "Dial 911" and the "Shake Down the Rafter's 'til the Morning After."

The Daredevils were formed in 1980 when the athletes combined their precision gymnastic and ball-handling skills while cheerleading at the University of Mississippi. This year's team features new members Gary Hedrick, Lance Robinson and Brian Smith.

Hedrick is a former world class trampoline competitor; Robinson is a former gymnast at Kent State and Smith is a former gymnast from Springfield College.

This year, the Bud Light Daredevils will perform at approximately 125 national and international events before more than one million fans.

The team has performed internationally throughout Europe, the Middle East, Japan, Latin America and Australia. In this country, the Daredevils regularly perform at NBA, NCAA, NAIA and Continental Basketball Association games.

PRC boys split tournament

A split in the Gulf Coast Community College basketball tournament left Pearl River Community College at 1-2 on the year.

PRC beat Meridian Community College 83-73 Thursday to begin the tournament, then fell to Southern University,

New Orleans 75-66 Friday.

Peter Georgiah, PRC's head coach, said the team is giving a good effort so far this year.

He explained the team had scoring from 10 players in Friday's loss and scoring from eight in Thursday's victory.

Ramond Nash has been averaging 19 points per game for the Wildcats, while Garnet Wilson and Fred Warner have been averaging 18 and 10 points respectively.

The women's team played in the Panola, Texas tournament over the weekend, but Coach Polly Kirkland could not be reached for the results.

Following Monday's home game against Natchez Community College, the men will be off until the Delta Community College Tournament Nov. 20-21.

The women will play Trinity Valley Texas at home Thursday, then be off until they travel to Alabama to play Patrick Henry Junior College Nov. 28.

Smokers will kick the habit in Great American Smokeout

BY D.C. HARVILL

Many people in the area will join others across the nation today in the Great American Smokeout. Some hope the day without cigarettes will give them the incentive to give up smoking permanently; others want to prove to themselves that they can do without their nicotine fix, but are less ambitious about giving up the habit. Still others plan to keep on puffing—at all costs.

Having started smoking at an early age, Bay St. Louis Police Sergeant Chuck James has been a two packs-a-day smoker for many years. He now thinks it is time for him to stop.

"I have 40 years of smoking behind me. It's getting to where smoking is such a real hassle—I'll have a cigarette in my hand and not even know how it got there. But I can go for several hours without one and not even

I sent my cigarettes packing.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

Tips for the Smokeout

—Get rid of all cigarettes, ashtrays, matches and lighters in your home, office and car.

—Find a friend to support you for the whole day.
—Be ready for the urge to smoke to hit and have a plan to handle it, such as:

- * Take a deep breath, hold it a second, then release it very slowly.
- * Take deep rhythmic breaths similar to smoking to relax.
- * Remember your goal and the fact that the urge will eventually pass.
- * Think positive thoughts and avoid negative ones.
- * Brush your teeth.
- * Schedule a dental appointment to have your teeth cleaned and the nicotine stains removed.
- * Chew on carrot sticks, sugarless gum, or straws.
- * Do a brief exercise (isometrics, pushups, deep knee bends, walk up a flight of stairs, or touch your toes).
- * Call a supportive friend.
- * Drink a glass of cold water.
- * Compile a list of "Urge Activities" and start at the top when it hits.

—Keep your hands busy. Write a letter, knit a sweater, work on the car, practice your golf swing, do a crossword puzzle, or volunteer to help a friend.

—Keep your mind busy by planning your entire day. Change your routine so you can avoid the habit of smoking.

For instance, don't linger over that last cup of coffee in the morning while reading the paper or sit at the table for a long time after you have finished dinner.

Go for a walk, play with the kids, or get involved in some other activity. Don't sit in your smoking chair while watching TV. Don't ride home alone from work. Take a different route home so you will concentrate on driving instead of smoking.

—Eat several small meals. This maintains constant blood sugar levels and helps prevent the urge to smoke. Avoid sugary or spicy foods that trigger a desire for cigarettes.

—Wash the nicotine out of your body by drinking lots of water, juice and caffeine-free soft drinks. Pass up coffee, alcohol and caffeinated soft drinks because they increase your urge to smoke.

—At home, light incense instead of a cigarette, or take a warm shower.

—When you go out, go to places where smoking is prohibited—museums, theaters, libraries and churches.

—Above all, reward yourself. Plan to do something fun for doing your best. Go out to dinner (and sit in the nonsmoking section), go shopping and buy yourself something special, go to a movie, or call your best friend long distance.

miss it.

"I'm getting to the age where they say heart attacks are imminent. It's time to start taking care of myself, so I'll be around to take care of my family," James said.

James said he wishes the information available today on the problems caused by smoking had been available when he started.

"If I had had that information I might not have started in the first place," he said.

James has been utilizing subliminal tapes to assist him in making the break from cigarettes.

"I've promised myself I'd quit on the smokeout," he said.

Kay Cavode, librarian at the Pass Christian Library, also plans to put aside her smokes today.

"I've got to quit, but I enjoy it immensely. I loved smoking from the very first time I tried one," said Cavode, who developed her love of tobacco smoke from a pipe-smoking father.

"I've stopped before, but only for short times. It is just a matter of getting up my willpower and doing it. The first cup of coffee is going to be the tough part," she said.

Others want to kick the habit, but are less resolute than James and Cavode.

"I have to have more help than just a day. I'm going to stop, but I need to have something planned. That is my next project," said Ernie Beckmeyer, who has smoked "off and on" for 20 years.

Others have no intention of quitting, resigning themselves to their habits and any consequences they might bring.

"I'll quit if I am dead," said Ruth Thompson.

"I will quit if Ruthy quits," her husband Jim said.

"Jim's excuse for not quitting is because I told him I will divorce him if he quits," Ruth Thompson said.

Others have never taken up the habit and have no intentions of doing so now.

"I think it's terrible. Smokers are inconsiderate. They don't consider that some people have allergies to cigarette smoke and go through a lot of suffering because of them," Franya Ethridge said.

Costs of smoking are extensive

BY D.C. HARVILL

Today is the American Cancer Society's 13th annual Great American Smokeout. People throughout the country will muster their willpower and, with the support of friends, give up smoking—if only for the day.

The smokeout is designed to provide encouragement and support for smokers who want to kick the habit.

According to a promotion guide issued by the society for the smokeout, smoking extracts a heavy toll from our nation, including:

—The death of 390,000 people due to smoking and smoking-related causes in 1989;

—An estimated 155,000 new cases of lung cancer this year; —120 deaths due to smoking-caused heart attacks;

—Cancers of the mouth, pharynx, larynx, esophagus, pancreas, uterus, cervix and bladder. Smoking also has been linked to gastric ulcers, chronic bronchitis, emphysema, and even colds.

According to the report by the Surgeon General, one in six deaths in the United States can be attributed to smoking.

Babies born to smoking mothers generally are smaller in size and weigh less than babies born to nonsmoking women.

productivity and in the treatment of smoking-related diseases for each pack of cigarettes lost. Smokers are absent from work 50 percent more often than nonsmokers and have twice as many on-the-job accidents.

LEAVE THE PACK BEHIND

JOIN THE GREAT AMERICAN SMOKEOUT
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1989

Smokers are not the only ones affected; nonsmokers also suffer.

According to the brochure, children in households where one or both parents smoke have double the amount of bronchitis or pneumonia than children in nonsmoking households. They also require more tonsil and adenoid operations.

The costs associated with smoking are not limited to damages to the health of individuals. A study done in 1985 by the U.S. Congress Office of Technological Assessment estimated an average of $2.17 is lost in

Warren named National Merit Semifinalist

National Merit Semifinalist Staci Warren, a senior at Hancock North Central School, is the daughter of Joe and LaVera Warren of Diamondhead. The 16-year-old student is also the winner of the school's top Century III Leader program, according to D. E. Hillman, principal. She may now compete with other local winners from around the state for one of two $1,500 college scholarships and an all-expenses paid trip to the National Century III Leaders Conference March 2-5 in Colonial Williamsburg, Va. State delegates will compete for the national winner's prize of an additional $10,000 scholarship.

STACI WARREN

The Century III Leaders program is designed to recognize student leaders who show strong leadership abilities and an interest in the future of America.

Staci was judged on the basis of leadership skills, academic success, school and community involvement, and a current events examination.

Runners-up in the competition at Hancock North Central were Russell Lee, Darlon Necaise, second and third choices, respectively.

This is the fourteenth year of the Century III Leadership program, which annually awards at total of $249,100 in scholarships to student leaders. Century III is funded by the Shell Oil Company Foundation and administered by the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

"MAKING CONNECTION"

Pat Santucci, District Manager

TELECOMMUNICATIONS — KEY TO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

A world of opportunity and growth awaits Mississippi. Emerging technology promises to unite our cities and rural areas into one global economy. And the connecting highway is the telecommunications network.

The United States has the best telephone network and service in the world — in price, service and availability. And we have the technology to provide new kinds of services. But other nations are pulling ahead of us.

We need only look at what's already being achieved in other nations to see that Americans today are being denied access to exciting services because of federal restrictions on the Bell telephone companies.

- More than four million French families have computer terminals connected via telephone lines to over 10,000 information services.
- In the United Kingdom, over 200,000 British Telecom residence and business customers are linked to a videotex system through telephone lines. One program, Education 2000, promotes education, and another, Chat Back, is for children who have speech or other communications difficulties.
- In Saskatchewan, Canada, farmers can use AgriTex, a service that provides weather information, commodity rates, agricultural data and other information.

Telecommunications has the potential for revolutionizing education and commerce, but restrictions on the Bell telephone companies prevent Americans from taking advantage of these and other yet-to-be discovered information services.

Industry experts predict that thousands of U. S. jobs would be created — including many in rural areas — by lifting information services restrictions. Congress is presently considering a bill that would relax some of the restrictions, and we hope they'll carefully consider the impact. We need a public policy that allows all Americans access to the latest, most modern information services.

In Mississippi, our modern telecommunications network gives us an opportunity to be highly competitive with other states for new businesses and jobs. We want to keep that momentum going.

Our Poem

By Mark Mason

When "ole meat-in-the-pot" barks
Something falls; But, some flee.
Perhaps a hunting dog mistaken for meat.
The barks of those go unheard
And die in the leaves of the trees.
Until now, A Lion in Winter
Whose voice echoes the souls
Of brothers and sisters of different species.
Her bark is loud as her bite:
She is the Society, and she saves those too weak to fight.

Kidney stones? Lithotripsy keeps you on the job, not in the hospital.

Removing kidney stones used to mean major surgery, a lengthy hospital stay and a long time away from the job.

Not today.

Thanks to a procedure called lithotripsy, kidney stones can now be removed quickly and easily, without surgery and the long recovery period that accompanies it.

The procedure involves carefully focused sound waves which disintegrate kidney stones, allowing them to pass naturally through the body's urinary tract. Recovery takes place in a few days and the patient can be back at work immediately.

Lithotripsy -- it's the fast, safe, effective treatment for kidney stones... that works.

Blue Willow...

the most popular pattern ever to decorate a plate is imported from England and produced by Churchill, a leading china manufacturer for over 145 years. For more than 200 years Blue Willow has graced the finest dining tables in the world and stirred the imaginations of discerning collectors. And no wonder. Who, after all, can resist the charming myth depicted on the plate — that of the star-crossed lovers who were turned into immortal love birds? And who could fail to recognize the quality of the hand engraving or the distinctive cobalt blue?

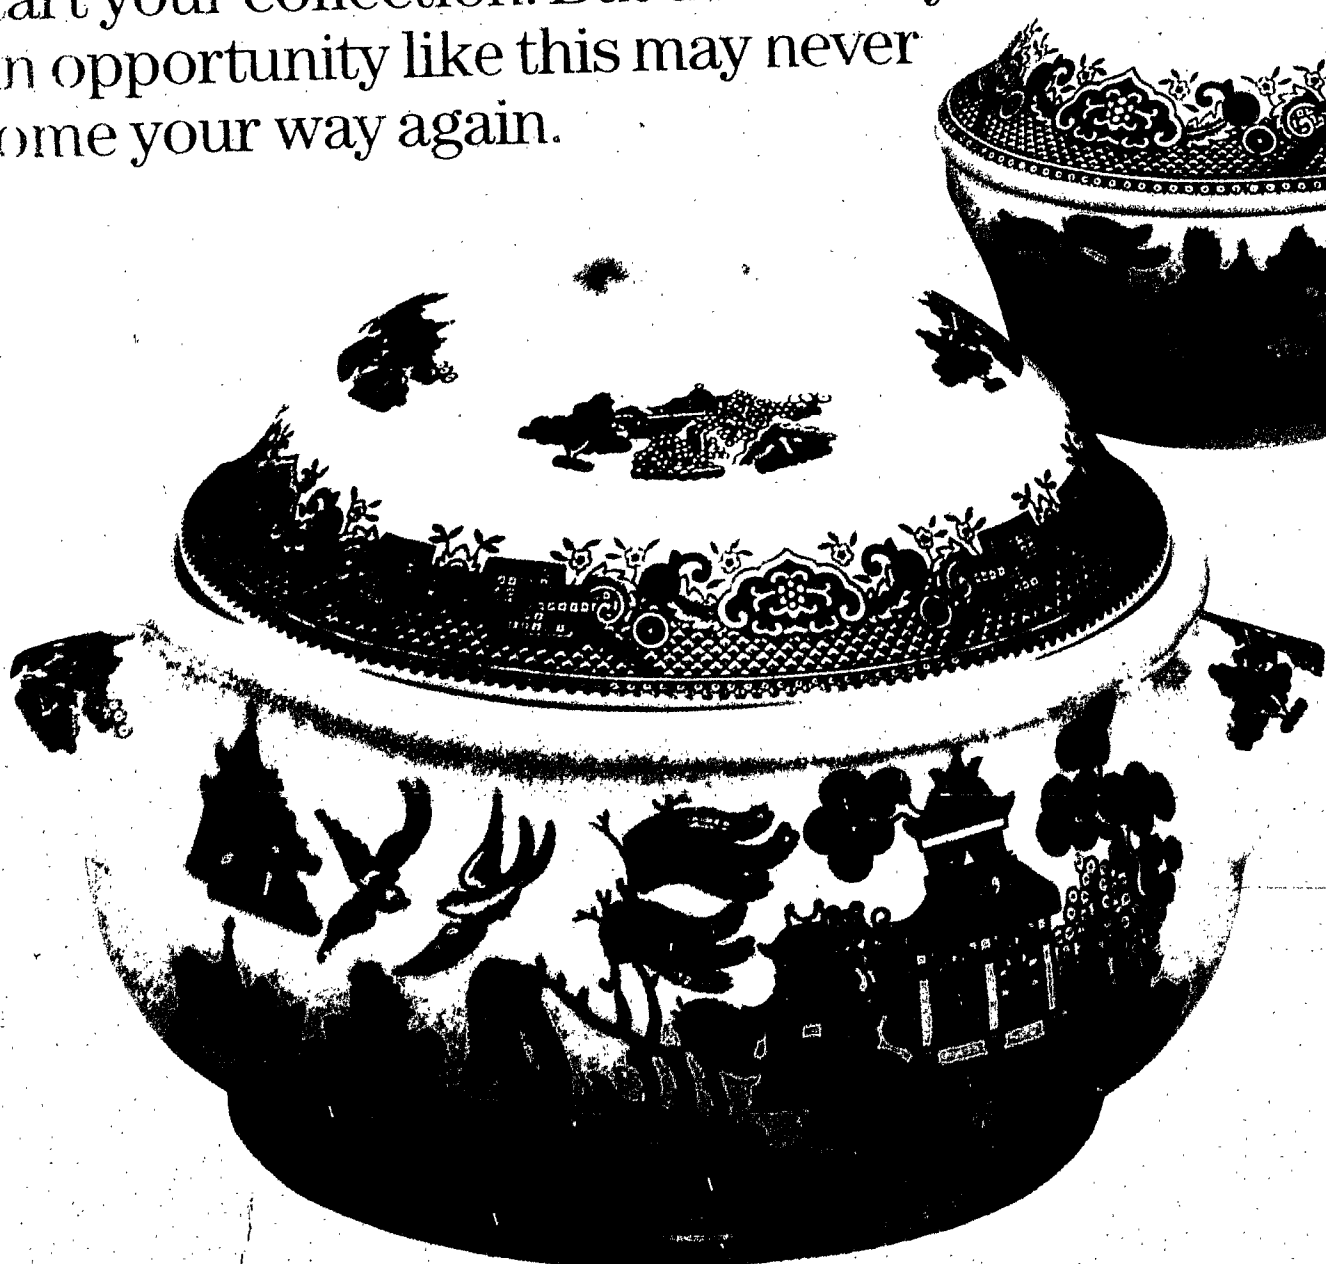

Made in England

And now there's a real reason to celebrate. For a limited time through this exclusive offer you can buy classic Blue Willow at tremendous savings.

At these prices you can't afford not to start your collection. But do it today. An opportunity like this may never come your way again.

BaySide house fir

BY ELLIS CUEVA

A family of five shimmyed down a pole from second-story bedrooms as their BaySide Park home was gutted by fire early Thursday.

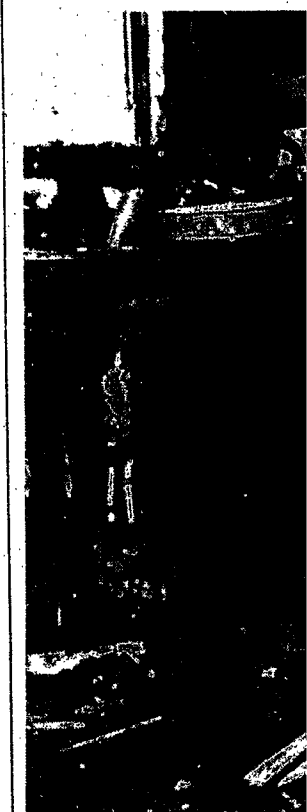

Robert Byrant, his 10-year-old daughter and two sons, nine and seven, were asleep when he was awakened by a crackling noise at about 4:45 a.m. Thursday.

"I heard some popping noises and thought it might have been the children's toys playing downstairs in the two-story frame house we were renting.

"As I awoke, I looked at a bug light we had in the room and I could see the smoke in the light jumped up and tried to go downstairs and could see the kitchen in flames and smoke smelled like plastic was burning," Byrant reported.

He said he immediately awakened his wife and children and they went down the utility pole which was next to the house, as they could go down the stairs because of the fire.
